Testimonials

"Such a professional experience! Rose's Daughters attention to detail, organization and overall processes are unmatched. They handled all of the details and exceeded my expectations by leaps and bounds. They put our minds at ease. Hire them! You'll thank me!"

-Alex

"Your service is valued at twice the price!"

-Kerry

"From the initial meeting and planning to the last box and piece of furniture being unpacked and placed perfectly, including family keepsakes your staff was professional, patient, kind, compassionate and accommodating. Such an exceptional experience! Given the stress of moving you made it much easier than we could have ever imagined."

-Ben

"Rose's Daughters is so much more than a moving service! Your personalized services change the way people relocate. It's remarkable how you orchestrate moves, while taking care of people's emotions and their things. We want everyone to know that to minimize the stress of a move they should work with you!"
